School Triumphant

*Carol
To a fine girl

Marcia*

"School triumphant, spirit splendid..." Taken from Sharon High's alma mater, these well-voiced words express the ideals of Sharon High School.

To begin with, our school is a place where students can develop intellectually. For example, this year our senior class had two boy finalists in the merit scholarship program. In addition to these academic honors, several seniors have received college scholarships, some even more than one. These are both proof of the intellectual achievement gained at Sharon High, but there are also other examples. For instance, it isn't just the so-called "eggheads" who have an opportunity to develop their intellectual powers. All of us can, for the opportunities are there for us to take or leave; it is up to us. For example, in English class alone we learn logical thinking, organization, and simplicity in both oral and written communication; and we learn about the magnificence of our own language. Then, in our foreign language classes we develop the proficiency in conversation and we come to understand, appreciate and even love a people somewhat different from ourselves.

As Sharon High students, our development doesn't end with intellectual achievement. We also progress socially. In fact, many opportunities are provided just for this purpose. Some include class parties, club meetings and even our more elegant dances such as Homecoming and Prom. All of these combined enable us to learn to work and play together as friends and fellow students.

Naturally, there would be a gap in our development if we weren't given the opportunity for expressing ourselves creatively. This is accomplished through many sources. To mention a few, sports is an outlet for our athletic skills, while the drama channels us toward dramatics and the theatre. Also playing an important part are music, writing and art, which enrich our lives in many different ways.

Behind our development as students are an outstanding administration and an outstanding faculty, striving endlessly to help us to develop our skills not only in our school work, but also in extracurricular activities. Because of these factors, our students do have the opportunity to develop intellectually and socially.

In short, Sharon High School is the product of those people who make it up. The ideals, ambitions and endeavors of the administration, faculty and students shape our school in its personality and in its reputation as a "school triumphant, spirit splendid..."

GAZETTE EDITORIAL BOARD
SITTING: Richard Routman, Editor-in-chief; Susie Whitehead, Miss Smith, Advisor; Carole Brady, Associate Editor.

With the purchase of a varityper, Gazette was able to print papers for the students each month. Here Rich Routman discusses the operation of the multilith with Mr. Davis.

The Gazette, our school newspaper, keeps the community informed of the activities of the faculty and the student body. This year the school purchased a Varityper which is to be used in conjunction with the multilith for the printing of the Gazette.

Now, in addition to appearing in the Sharon Herald, newspapers are printed monthly for the students. A new way of admitting members was inaugurated this year. Stories are graded by quality points, and a student must have 17 points to qualify.

Bring Back Those Old Memories

The Mirror Staff prepares a colorful review of student activities during the school year, both scholastic and social. The staff is divided into five groups -- copy, sports, typing, photo, and art. Members can often be seen Saturday mornings and school nights in the Publications' office struggling to meet the approaching deadline. Flashbulbs can be seen popping throughout the school in an attempt to catch the students in the act of being themselves. Advised by Mr. Hood, the Mirror Staff strives to keep the past in the present.

Mr. Hood, Advisor, and Loretta Catania, editor in chief, look over old yearbooks for ideas.

Dee Zachik, assistant editor, and Annette Forker plan layouts for the activities section.

Mr. Hood, Advisor, and Mr. Houck, Business Manager.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

This May several new students were inducted into National Honor Society. To be elected into this society is the greatest honor a student in Sharon High can receive. Not only must he have a three average to be eligible but also he must pass the strict voting of the faculty. National Honor Society stand for Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service and its members must measure up!

New National Honor Society members are inducted each May in a school assembly by the N.H.S.

The American Field Service is an organization set aside primarily for the purpose of strengthening international relations between United States and foreign nations through high school students. The main project of A.F.S. is a fund-raising drive for financing the expenses of students coming to the U.S. and those American students going abroad. This drive is set off each year by an assembly planned by A.F.S. members.

The Future Teachers Club aims to acquaint students with the field of teaching. Twice, in the course of their Senior year, members observe in the junior high and grade schools to obtain a better idea of the teaching profession.

This year the officers of the club attended a convention at Slippery Rock and also installed the members of the newly organized Hickory Chapter.

Stress Individual Initiative

Those students in their third and fourth year of art are eligible to become members of the Art Club. They are able to do extra work in art, hold weekly meetings, and also take trips to nearby art shows.

Masque and Mike offers those interested in speech and dramatics an outlet for their talents and adds a touch of the make-believe though never ceasing to be of realistic value to our student body and community.

Shaking hands, smiling faces, and warm hellos, are all trademarks of the Hospitality Committee. Its members help the new students to feel more at home at Sharon High by acquainting them with our school, and introducing them to fellow students and faculty. The members of the Hospitality Committee help new students to make friends and also help to keep our school a warm and friendly place.

The Social Committee, under the supervision of Mr. Smith, is a vital organization within S.H.S. It plans student social activities throughout the year such as the traditional "Sophomore Hop" where the Sophies get their official initiation. Through their committees, they plan skits and programs, refreshments, and clean-up.

Guide Us Through The World Of Books

The members of the Library Club help to make the library a convenient and comfortable place for the students of Sharon High to study and do research work. For their major project this year the Library Club sold paperback books to obtain funds with which to add to the collection in the library. This organization is under the diligent supervision of Miss Weller.

Christmas-Spanish style.

The Spanish Club, advised by Miss Wilson, strives to acquaint its members with the customs and traditions of Spanish-speaking people. This goal is partially achieved by organized participation in the preparation and celebration of an annual Christmas fiesta; still more contributions to this goal are made by guest speakers from near-by high schools and colleges. The Spanish Club's special project this year was to raise money for a Peace Corps volunteer.

The French Club, under the direction of Mr. Hudson, strives to teach French students not only the language but the customs and traditions of France. As projects for the school year members of French III club edited a French newspaper with articles from the French I, II, III Clubs and the club had as its guest speaker, our foreign exchange student from Japan, Naomi Tada.

The Junior Classical League, directed by Miss Caldwell, study the language of the Romans and pursue their education by advanced reading and by presenting programs to the group.

Talent + Practice =

The Sharon High School orchestra, under the keen baton of Mr. Reichenfeld, consists of string, woodwind, percussion, and brass sections. In addition, the Dance Band, directed by Mr. Boles, provides a musical touch to both social and athletic events at Sharon High. Finally, both the brass choir and the string ensemble provide cultural entertainment for both the community and the school. All of these groups of young musicians combined are a tribute not only to our music department, but our school and community as well.

Mind, Ear, And Mouth

Any member of S.H.S. should be proud of the fine choir it possesses under the leadership of Mr. Blough. This musical organization meets daily as a regular class to prepare selections of musical variety for each of the concerts it performs. Patience is a quality necessary for choir members since learning parts can be a tedious task. However, together with co-operation, full-attention, and practice, perfection is reached. As a result the quality with which our Alma Mater is sung, is not soon forgotten in the hearts of our students.

S. Jones, head majorette.

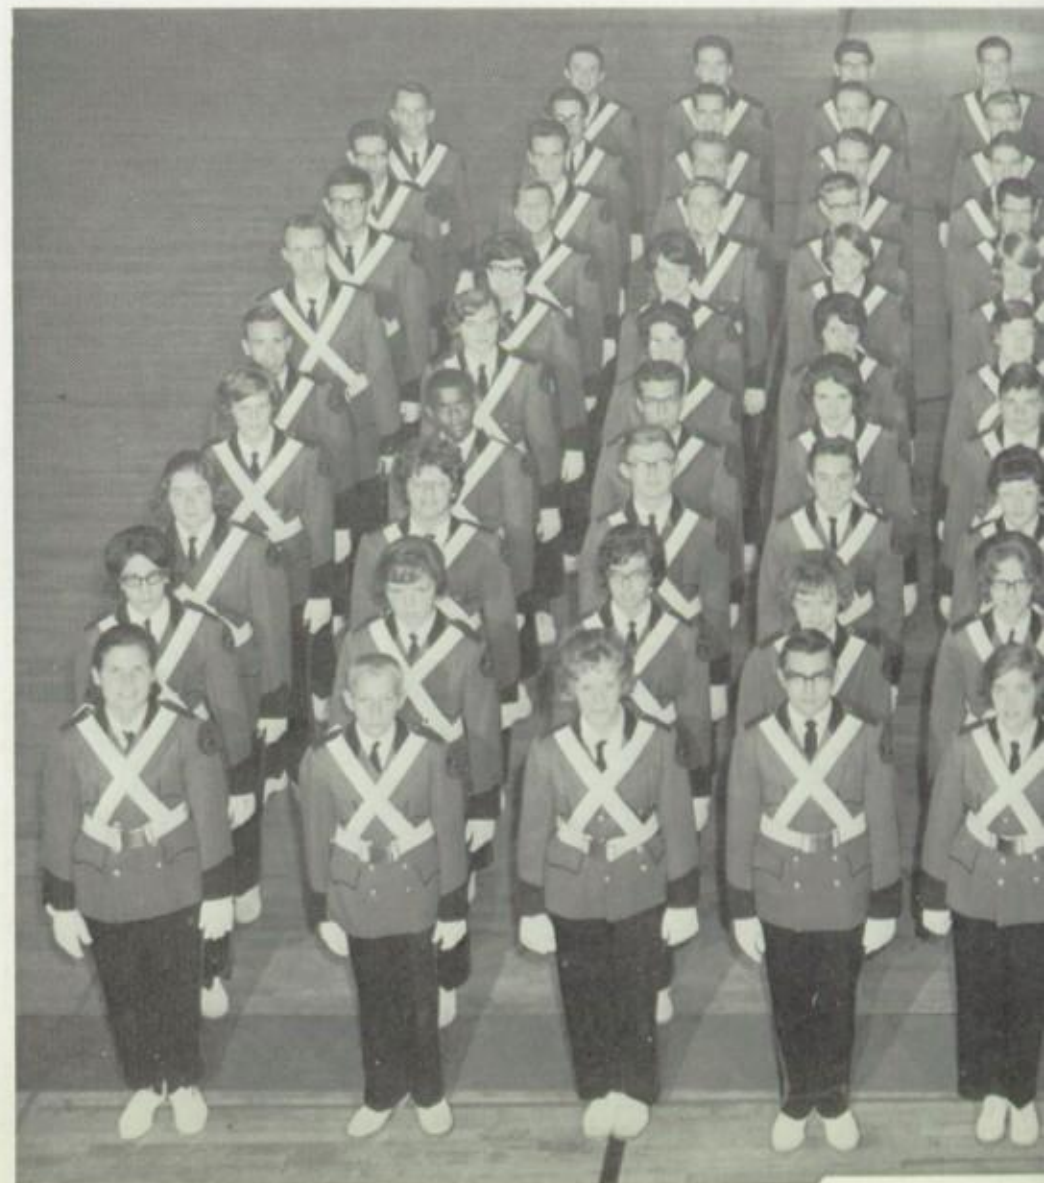

Being one of the largest bands of the area, the Sharon High Band, under the direction of Mr. Fred Boles consists of one hundred and ten members. The marching band, as well as providing half-time entertainment by their precision drills and dance routines at the football games, also appear in parades in the area. The majorettes add spirit and color, by displaying intricate twirling routines and dance steps at football and basketball games.

This year the band finally got their own practice field. Throughout football season the band can be found on the "Corner Lot" ninth period and after school.

After football season the band is transformed into a concert band which presents their annual concert in the spring.

One of the many worthwhile service organizations of SHS open to boys is the Hi-Y. The goal of the Hi-Y Club is to promote Christian life throughout the community. These boys are united to "create, maintain, and extend" the high standards of Christian living under the guidance of Mr. Canter and Mr. Bower. One of the main activities of the organization is to hold an annual Homecoming Dance, from which the proceeds are used to carry on their yearly projects.

Under the guidance of Mr. Holt, the stage crew sets up necessary equipment and lights the stage to make assemblies and musical rehearsals possible. Without the man behind the scenes, the man in the spotlight could never be. We give our thanks to these helpful boys who work diligently backstage.

On the other hand, the visual-aids department under the direction of Mr. Marks, makes our class room movies possible. In preparation the boys check and set up projectors and screens.

Highlights Of Clubs' Activities

Sharon High's FTA club installed the officers for the new chapter of Future Teachers at Hickory.

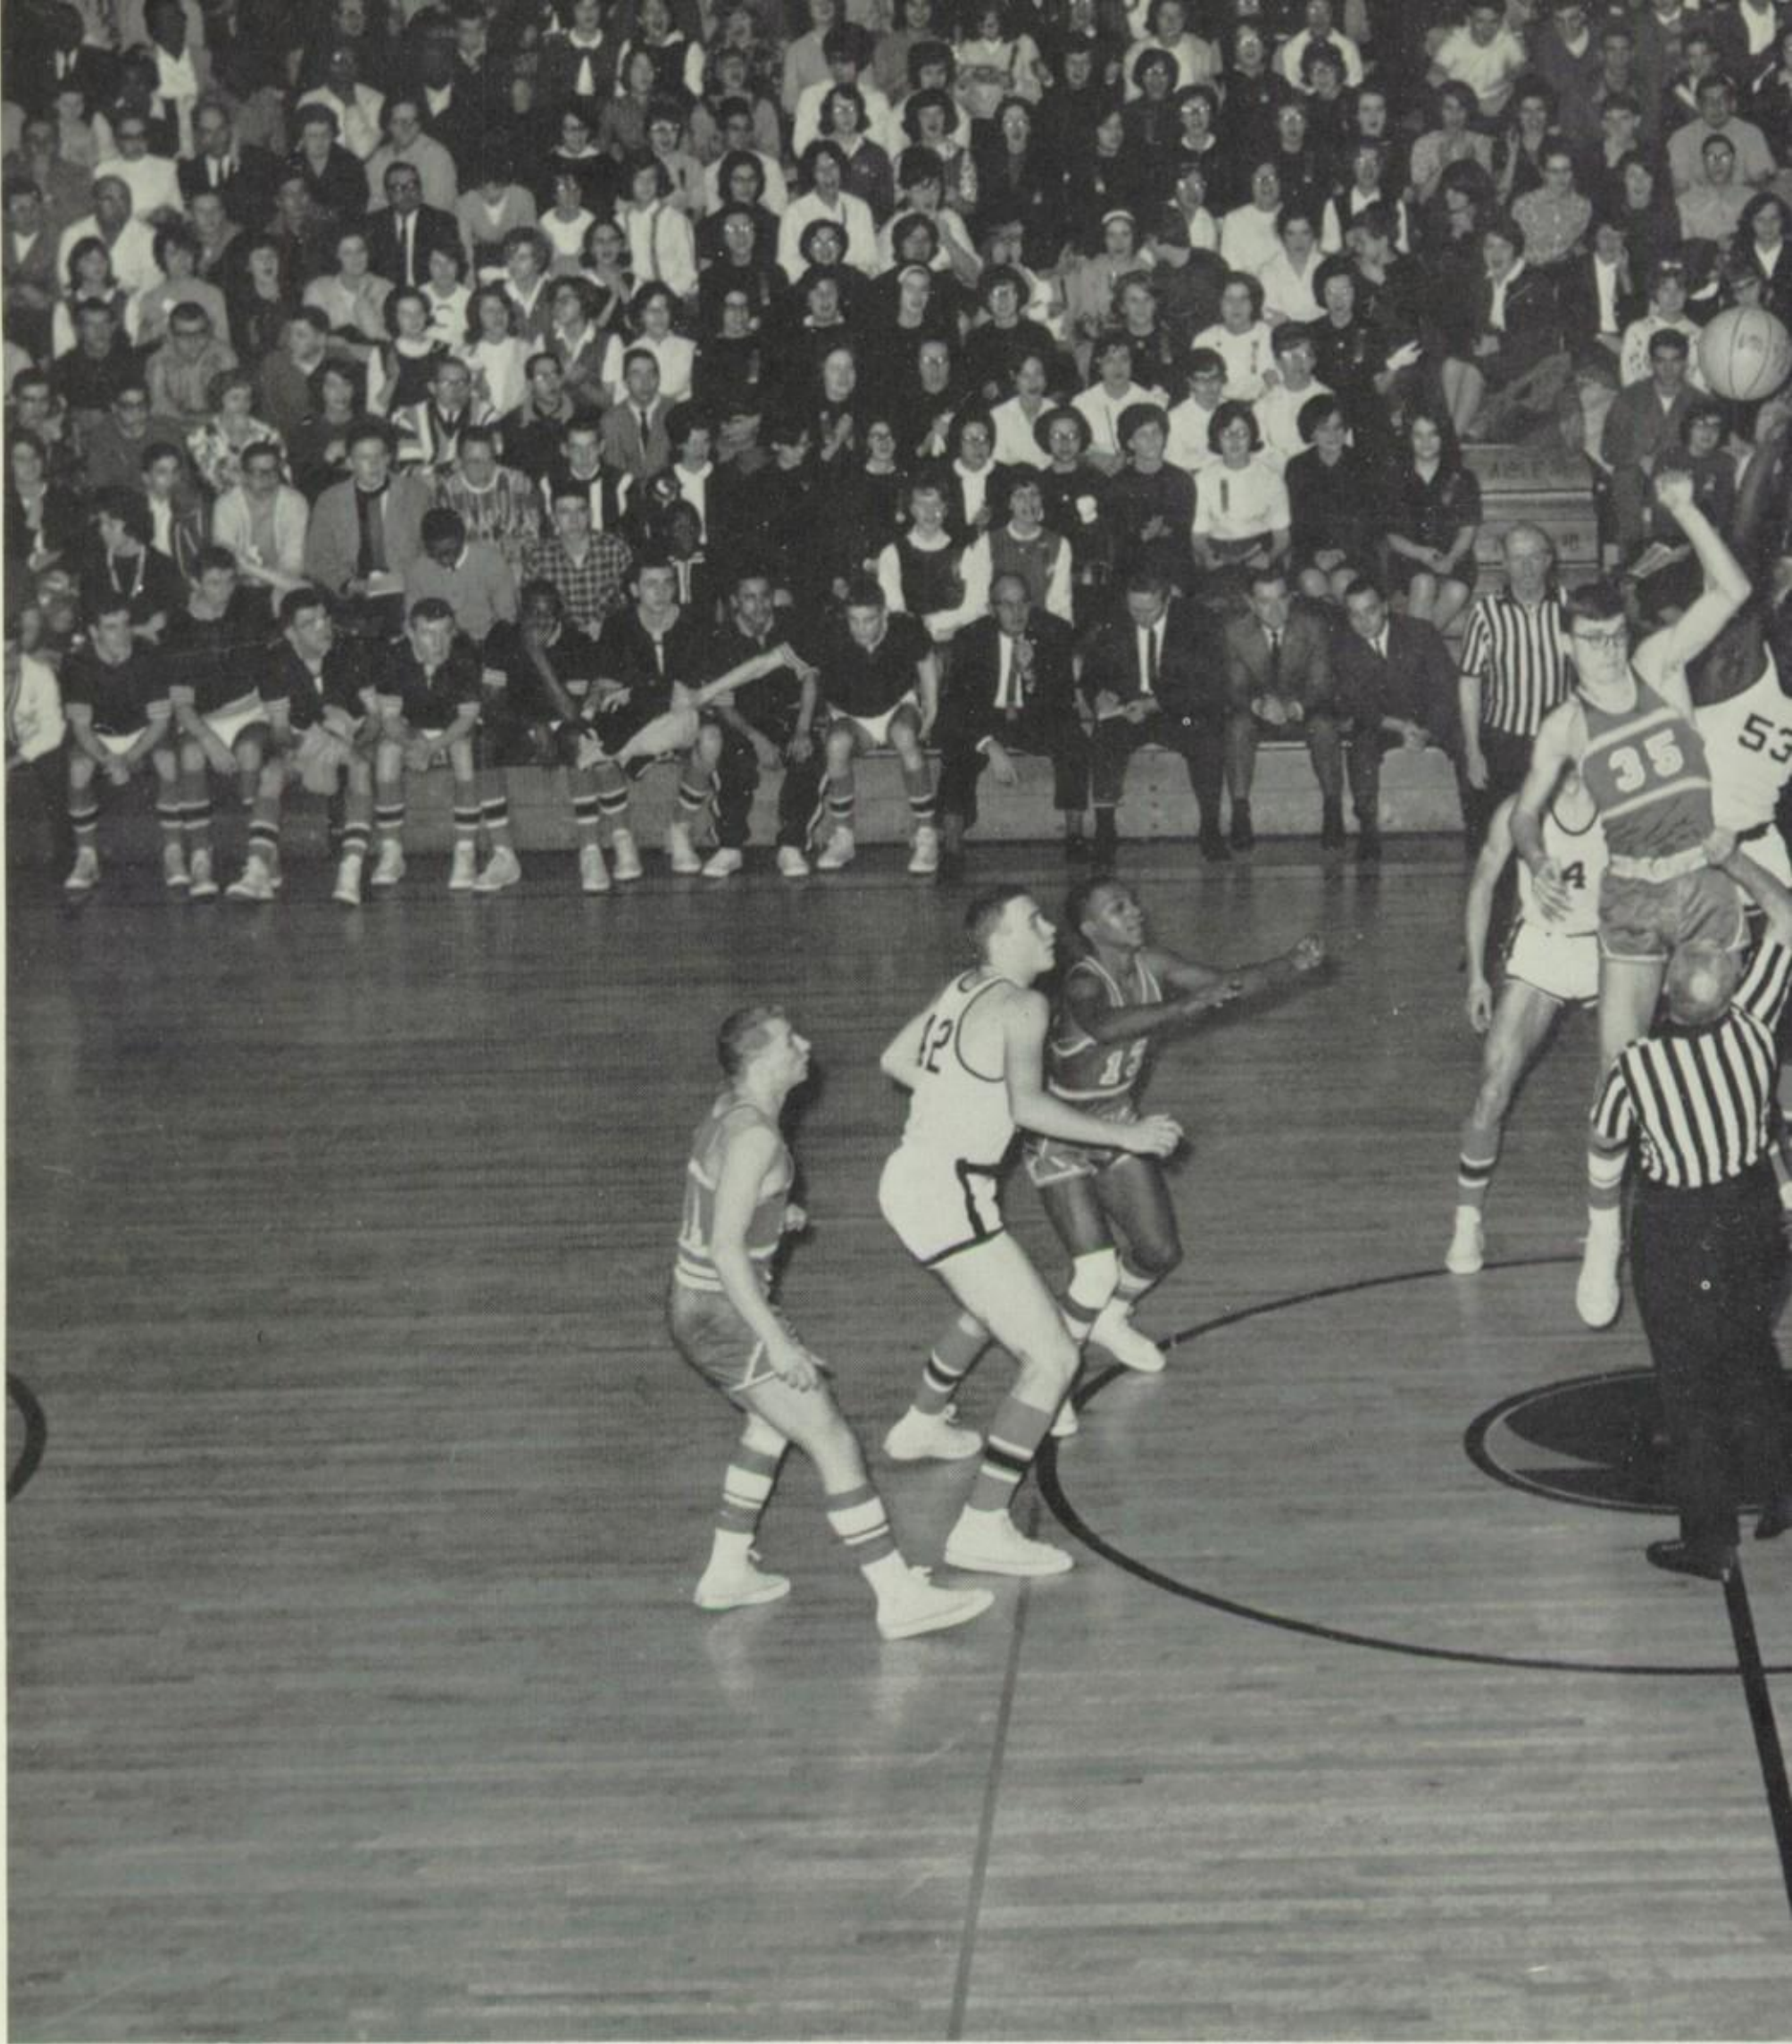

The SHS BEATLES perform at a dance sponsored by the Social Committee.

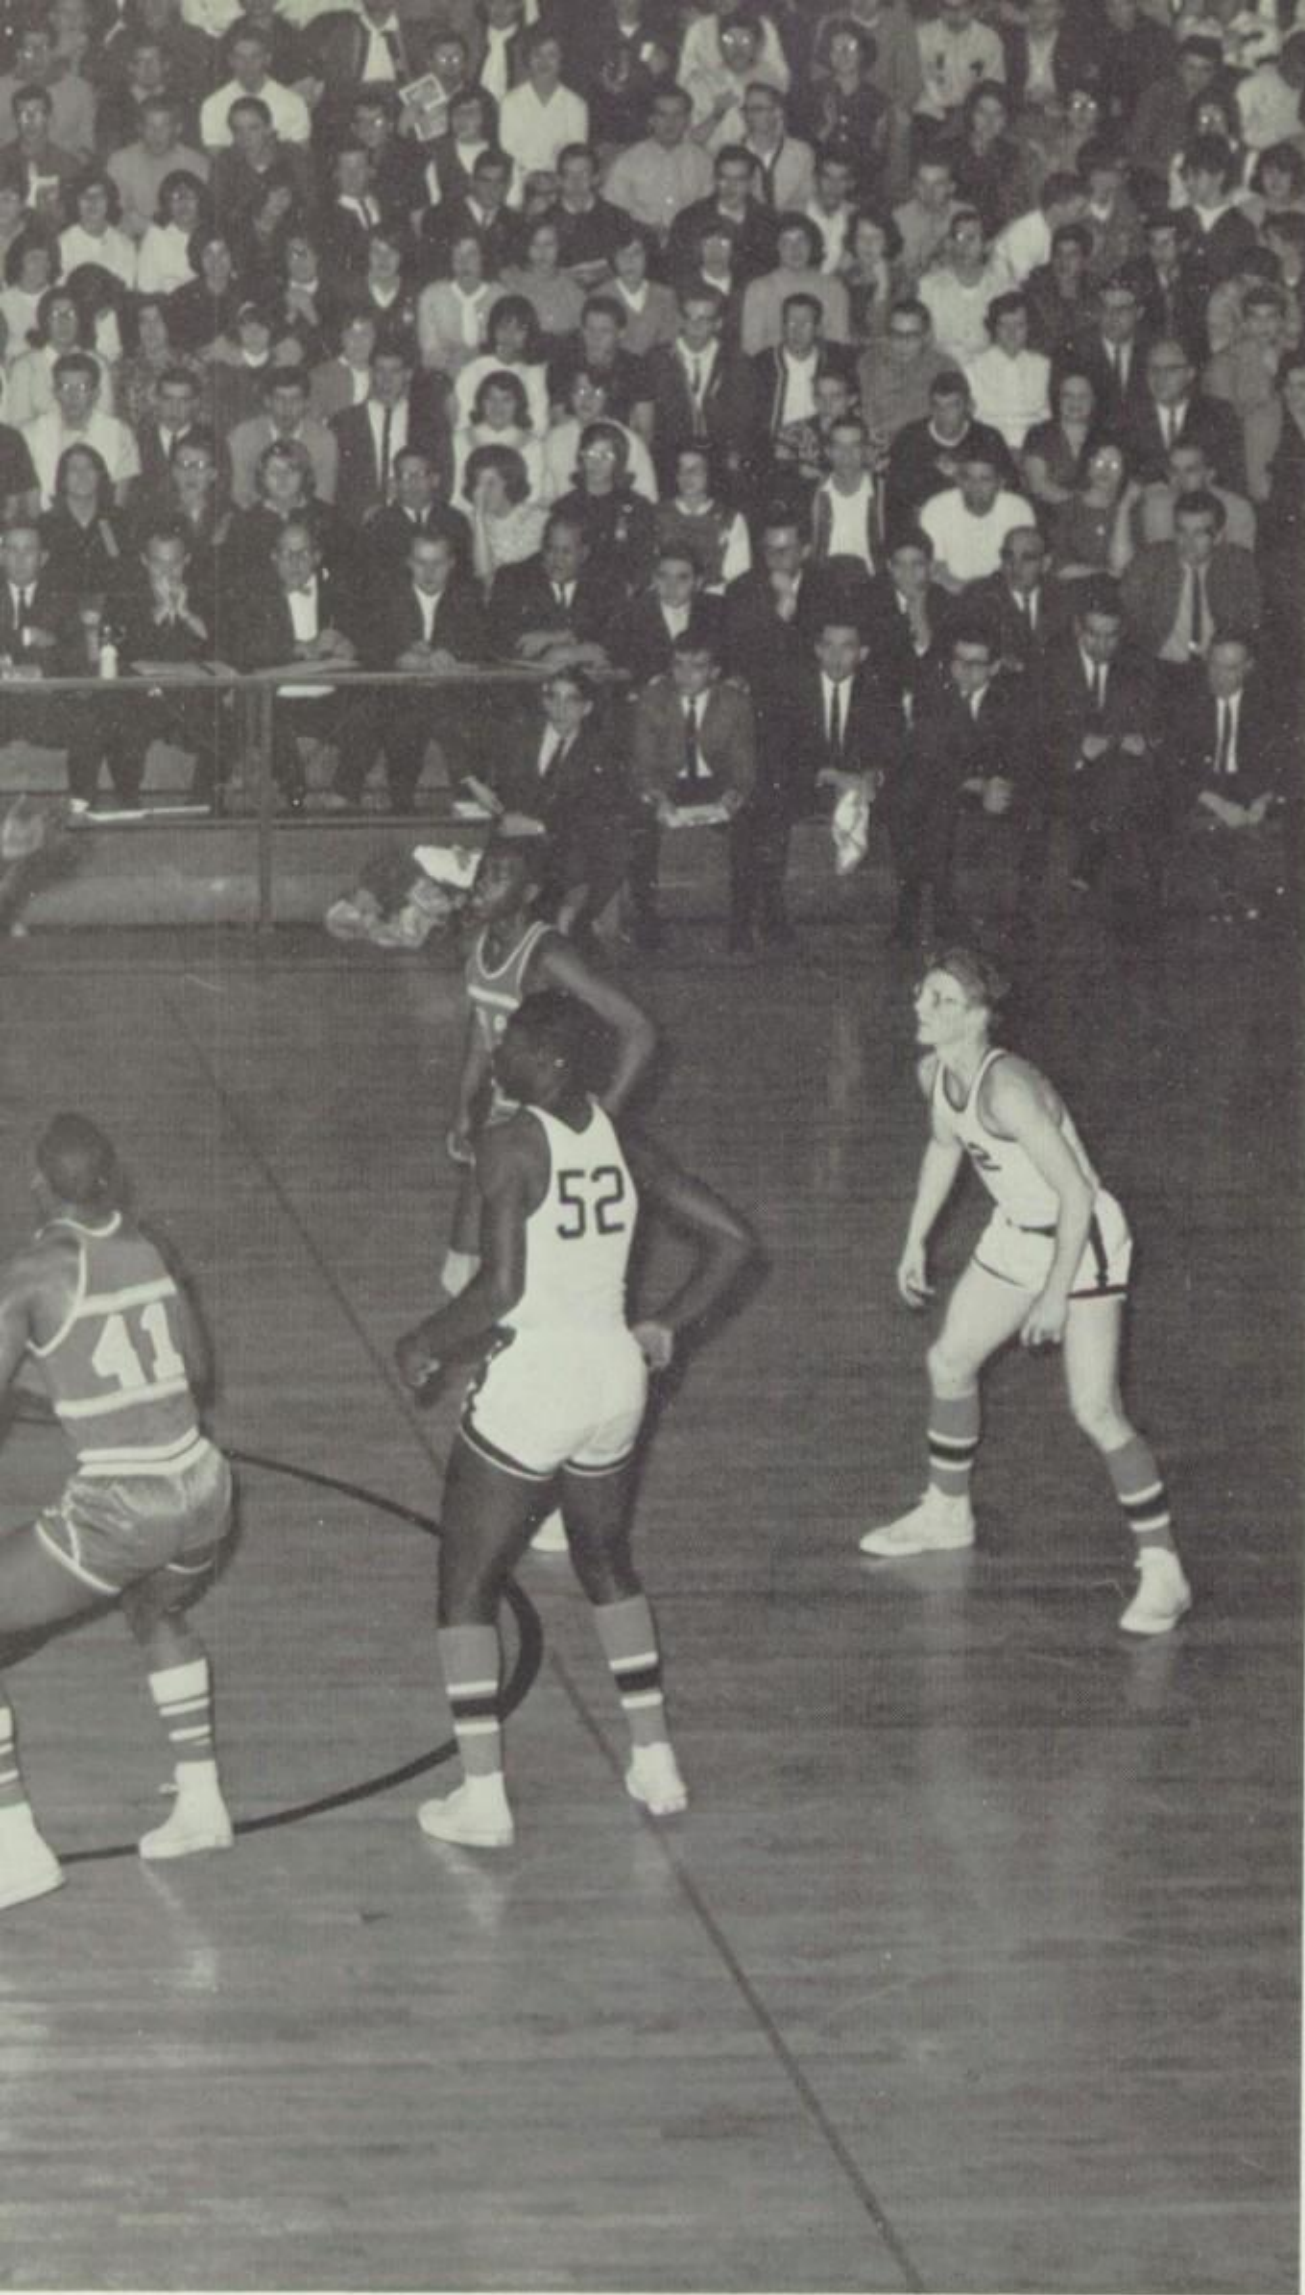

The proceeds from the Homecoming Dance are given to world service.

The biggest project of the Library Club this year was the sponsoring of the bookmobile which was at our disposal for a week.

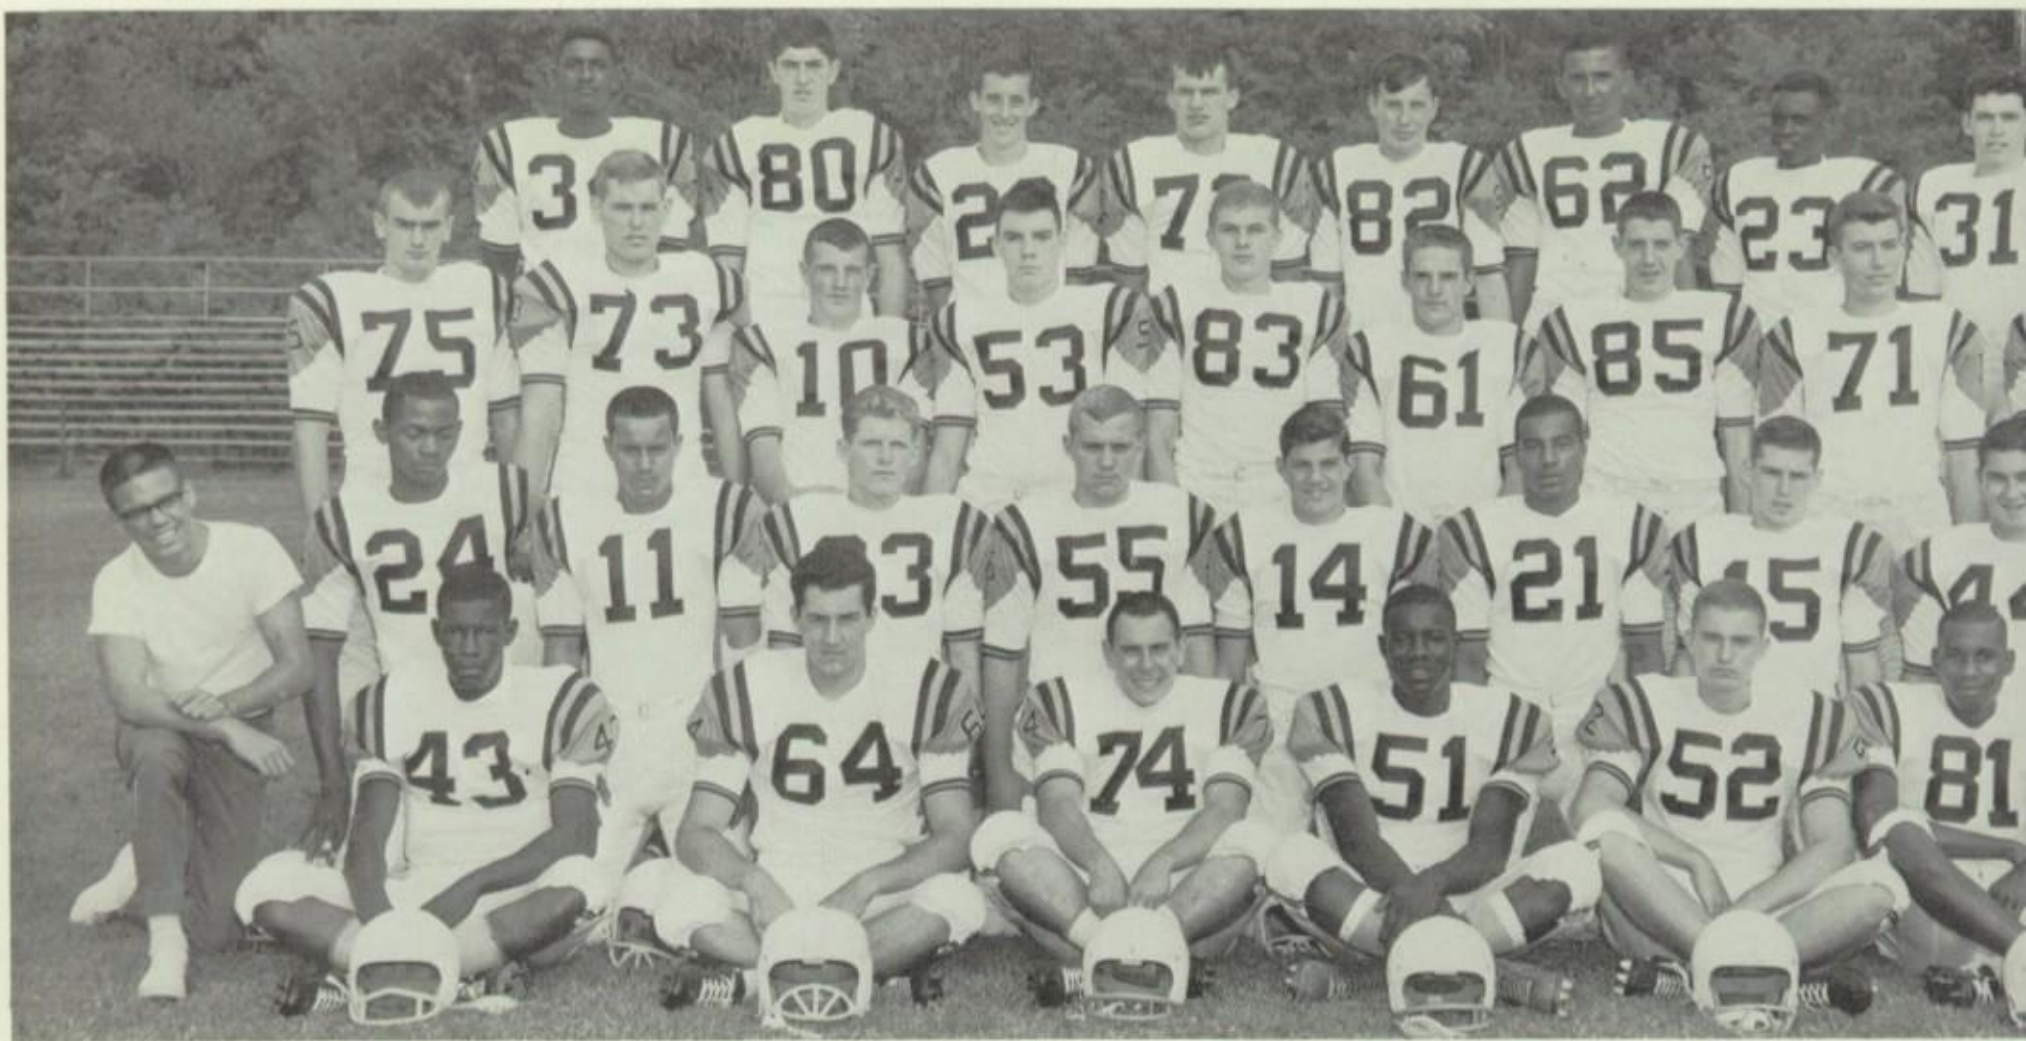

SPORTS

From the tap of a basketball to the punt of a football, Sharon High leads the way in athletics. This past year has shown an outstanding display of victories, spirit, and sportsmanship not only in our teams, but in our faculty and students as well. These qualities are not only the goal of our teams but they represent the goal of Sharon High School.

The SHARON HIGH FOOTBALL TEAM of 1963 had a commendable and interesting season. Opening the grid action for the year the Bengals slashed the Blue Devils of Sharpsville 27-0. The Pigskin then took a bounce against the Razzanomen and they dropped the next five straight. Perseverance and practice paid dividends when Sharon bounced back to beat Hickory by a score 14-0. The biggest upset of the year happened on a cold, rainy night when Senior QB Tom Ristvey passed Sharon to a 26-0 victory over second ranked Altoona. The Tigers continued splendid play winning their remaining games. John Anderson, senior HB gave the Sharon fans a superb example of his broken field running with a 67 yard touchdown to beat Farrell 13-7 and cap the season for SHS.

Those who enter Thornton Hall Bowling Lanes on Wednesday afternoon are taking their "lives in their own hands." They will find the place filled with active, noisy Keglers of Sharon High anxious to start the competition. Keglers is an organization formed for those who can be active and anxious after a long day at school. It is made up of twenty-eight teams of four players each competing weekly. Money collected for dues provides for a banquet in the spring at which trophies are awarded. Not only does Keglers entertain, but it is also a great form of relaxation and exercise and improves sportsmanship among students.

PEP CLUB

The newest and largest club of Sharon High School started this fall shortly after the beginning of football season. Sharon High Pep Club became an official member of the family of school activities with the adoption of their constitution in February. Although a young club, it grew in leaps and bounds. With 300 members they operate a card section during football season and a Block "S" during basketball. They have sweatshirts to distinguish themselves from the other fans of Sharon High School. The club's first officers were John Heutsche - President, Hannah McCarthy - Secretary-Treasurer and Miss Grinstein - Advisor.

"All set-you bet." At the top of their lungs the Cheerleaders radiate their enthusiasm for the Bengal Boys. Win, lose or draw these girls are behind our team ALL THE WAY!! During the summer they spend many hours of THEIR leisure time practicing, attending cheerleading clinics, and making signs. They've sponsored "Orange and Black Days," "Bounce Back Bengal Days" and numerous rallies. The cheerleaders also have the right to the glory of starting our Pep Club. Let's give a cheer for the cheerleaders.

The SHARON HIGH BASKETBALL TEAM of 1963-64 had a very grand record of 17 wins and 5 losses. The fans and student body supported our team 100% throughout the entire season. The Bengals missed winning the section 3 crown by a total of 17 points. The highlight of the season was the setting of a new scoring record of 523 points in one season and 1009 points for a three year career by Jeff Perrson. The outlook for next year is even more promising because the Junior Varsity squad finished the year with a perfect season of 22-0.

STUDENT

The student body of Sharon High has always been and will always be one of the most respected in the area. The excellent scholastic record of many of its students, their conduct, loyalty and spirit are all contributing factors which rate Sharon High as THE BEST. At assemblies, games, club meetings and all other social activities, students from Sharon High go out for they are among the best our valley has to offer.

BODY

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS SITTING: Ken Johnston, President. STANDING: Holly Hanson, Secretary; Steve Kennedy, Vice-president; Jeff Persson, Treasurer.

Seniors

We, the Class of 1964, upon graduation, will face the greatest and most difficult task we have ever undertaken. The fate and future of our community, our state, our nation, and the entire world rests on our shoulders. We must not shun this responsibility, but we must take over where today's great leaders leave off.

Throughout the history of our nation, our predecessors did not wait for others to take upon themselves the task of creating and of leading our nation, but joined together to meet the challenges of their time. Likewise, we, the graduating class of 1964, must now attempt to meet the challenges--and there are many--of our time. We must, both as individuals and as a nation, strive to make our country and the world a better place for our posterity, as our forefathers have done for us.

Although it may be easier to take the simpler, less challenging path, we must take certain risks in order to make any progress toward the betterment of our nation. If opportunity ever knocks, we must be prepared to take advantage of the chance for success. For it has been proven throughout the past, that effort to succeed, and only effort to succeed, leads to the betterment, the advancement, and the success of mankind.

We, the Class of 1964, will confront our nation during pressing times. We must take up the challenge of our generation; we must try to succeed in these many endeavors. Deep down in our hearts we have no fears, for we truly know that we shall.

Sincerely,
Ken Johnston

In Memoriam -- Marcia Schwartz

THE CROSSING

They that love beyond the world can not be separated by it.
Death can not kill what never dies.
Nor can spirits ever be divided, that love and live in the same divine principle, the root and record, of their friendship...
Death is but crossing the world, as friends so the seas; they live in one another still....
This is the comfort of friends, that though they may be said to die, yet their friendship and society are, in the best sense, ever present because immortal.

"Well, how's the whole family?"

The cast during rehearsal.

The story of man's always beginning anew after the ice age and the great flood was told to a full capacity crowd February 28 by the Class of '64 through Thornton Wilder's "The Skin Of Our Teeth." The Antrobus family and their maid Sabina represent us, mankind, and they come through each crisis by the skin of their teeth.

This ambitious undertaking was well worth the effort put forth by all, for Miss Wilson and Mr. Rossetti and the cast were highly commended for their preparation and performances.

BELOW: "When the fire goes out..we die!" RIGHT: "It'll only hurt her feelings. It's better if we make it short and quick."

Sophomores - Class of '66

When the class of '66 came to Sharon High School, they expected to see a change in faces, teachers, and surroundings; but what they didn't expect was the change in themselves. The anticipation that came to them when they were sitting in the stands, rooting for our team to get that one extra point needed to win the game, was a feeling which they had never experienced. They weren't aware of the feeling that would be aroused when our band played our Alma Mater. Knowing that the Sophomore Hop would be their formal initiation to the school, they felt prepared; however, who could imagine the surprises that were in store for them. They have found out that their sophomore year would be one that they would always remember; how could they forget?

FACULTY

Sharon High School is fortunate to be able to pride itself in its faculty. These competent teachers keep pace with education by helping students to develop their skills in academics and in athletics. Because of their hard work, spirit, loyalty, and understanding, they help to mold Sharon High's reputation and personality. As a result, our faculty leads the way for academic and athletic recognition.

Superintendent

In this age of great opportunities and tremendous responsibilities, it is vital that education be a continuous process throughout life. The student must develop sufficient interest in his country and the world, so he or she will be motivated to remain constantly informed.

Good citizenship requires this, along with love of country and one's fellowman irrespective of race or color.

We ask of you, as adults, to work for the elimination of intolerance everywhere and to strive for equality of opportunity for all. We ask also that you support whole heartedly the public schools as an institution maintained for all the people. To maintain and improve our schools, and thereby strengthen our chances for survival, is one of your first duties as a citizen.

The legacy of the Class of 1964 is one that Sharon High School faculty and students will remember with pleasure. Outstanding scholastic achievement by many members of the class, exemplified by two National Merit Scholarship finalists, early admissions by many seniors to outstanding colleges, and numerous scholarship offers have added to the stature of Sharon High as a school.

Activities have been performed and supported with spirit and enthusiasm in dramatic groups, service clubs, publications, and athletic teams.

It is our hope as a faculty that our efforts have helped to make this legacy possible. If in the future the intellectual, social and moral development of the members of the graduating class of 1964 fulfills our hopes, we will be proud to have been your teachers and counselors.

Guidance Department

The Guidance Department of Sharon High School consists of three dedicated educators, well known to all of us. It is their primary responsibility to act as direction finders for the student body. This is carried out through a broad program of counseling and testing, which is designed to inform the student of his areas of ability. With this knowledge of ability, the Guidance people assist us in making plans regarding our future vocations and education. On the other hand, the Medical Department is in charge of our physical guidance. Through careful checkups and treatment for our accidental injuries, the school nurse and doctor guide us to good health.

Since English is required of each student throughout his three years at SHS, the department with which we should be most familiar is the English department. From sophomores worrying about the oral book reports due second period to juniors attempting to memorize a soliloquy from Macbeth, and seniors burning the midnight oil for senior themes, each student has come to know and appreciate Sharon High's fine staff of English teachers.

Social Studies Department

Through the various subject areas contained in the Social Studies Department, students are introduced to, and informed about the political, social, and economic world which constitutes such an important part of the lives of each of us. In the shrinking world in which we are now living it is of primary importance that the student of today have a knowledgeable understanding of all the various cultures, civilizations and societies which go together to make up the family of nations.

Mathematics Department

The Mathematics department trains the student's mind in a precise science, thereby meeting the challenge presented by new trends and demands of science and technology. The course not only trains minds, but it also guides the student to the basic elements of logical thinking and applying them to the solving of problems. Without the instruction of the Math teachers, students would be lacking in their preparation for future careers in mathematics.

Commercial Department

The Commercial Department offers the business student the opportunity to become well acquainted with the fundamentals of office practice. Notehand, shorthand, and typing give the student a chance to acquire the valuable skills in speed and accuracy. In addition, business math and bookkeeping also prove to be valuable assets. These working habits are necessary for a successful career in the business world.

Fine Arts

Art and music are two of the courses that reflect the student achievements in the Fine Arts Department. The band, orchestra, and choir members produce sounds that make these organizations proud of their members. The creative ability of the art students combine with that of the music student to promote enthusiasm and inspiration throughout the school. In the broadening of the student's interests, the library plays a major role. Sharon High School is fortunate to have a library which carries a vast amount of information on an unlimited variety of subjects.

Practical Arts

Those students who have selected the Practical Arts as their area of major interest will have a basic knowledge of mechanical, industrial and domestic procedures. The Mechanical Drawing course provides the student with an excellent background of design and layout work. The Electronics course offers the student valuable and practical knowledge in radio and T.V. technology. The Home Economics Department gives the future homemakers an understanding of the duties required for their future life. In Woodshop the student learns the skills of carpentry therefore rounding out that part of their education which might develop into a life's work.

Language Department

The foundation of a civilized country is its language. Therefore by mastering a foreign tongue the students of Sharon High become better acquainted with the customs and life of the people which each language represents. It strengthens the student's powers of thought while giving him a brief insight into the countries from which much of America's culture is derived. Those students who take interest in Latin, Spanish, or French form a language bond with the peoples of other nations.

Physical Education Department

"Without a firm body what good is a strong mind." These words spoken by Mr. Razzano have been echoing throughout the halls of Sharon High ever since the beginning of the school year. When all is said and done, these words certainly ring true. Imagine if all the students came to school with canes or crutches, they would spend more time changing classes than attending them. Therefore, our Physical Education Department must be commended for the fine effort it has put forth. If there are any doubting Thomases, a glance in the lower halls of SHS will reveal healthy students panting to their classes after a forty-minute workout in gym class.

Ask Not What Your Country Can Do For You Ask What You Can Do For Your Country

There was a sound of laughter; in a moment, it was no more. And so she took a ring from her finger and placed it in his hands.

There was a wit in a man neither young nor old, but a wit full of an old man's wisdom and of a child's wisdom, and then, in a moment it was no more. And so she took a ring from her finger and placed it in his hands.

There was a man marked with the scars of his love of country, a body active with the surge of a life far, far from spent and, in a moment, it was no more. And so she took a ring from her finger and placed it in his hands.

There was a father with a little boy, a little girl and a joy of each in the other. In a moment it was no more, and so she took a ring from her finger and placed it in his hands.

There was a husband who asked much and gave much, and out of the giving and the asking wove with a woman what could not be broken in life, and in a moment it was no more. And so she took a ring from her finger and placed it in his hands, and kissed him and closed the lid of a coffin.

A piece of each of us died at that moment. Yet, in death he gave of himself to us. He gave us of a good heart from which the laughter came. He gave us of a profound wit, from which a great leadership emerged. He gave us of a kindness and a strength fused into a human courage to seek peace without fear.

He gave us of his love that we, too, in turn, might give. He gave that we might give of ourselves, that we might give to one another until there would be no room, no room at all, for the bigotry, the hatred, prejudice and the arrogance which converged in that moment of horror to strike him down.

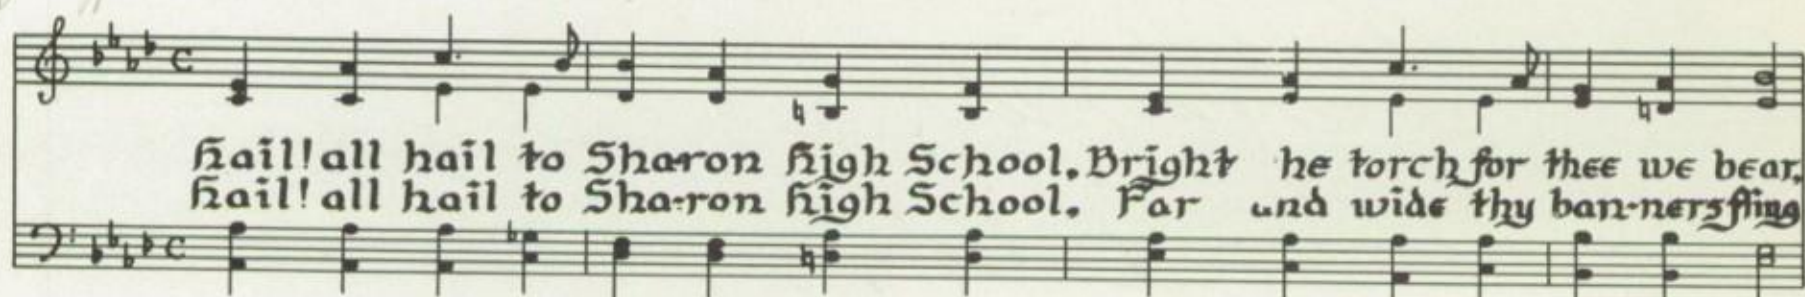

In leaving us--these gifts, John Fitzgerald Kennedy, President of the United States, leaves with us. Will we take them, Mr. President? Will we have, now, the sense and the responsibility and the courage to take them?

I pray to God that we shall and under God we will.

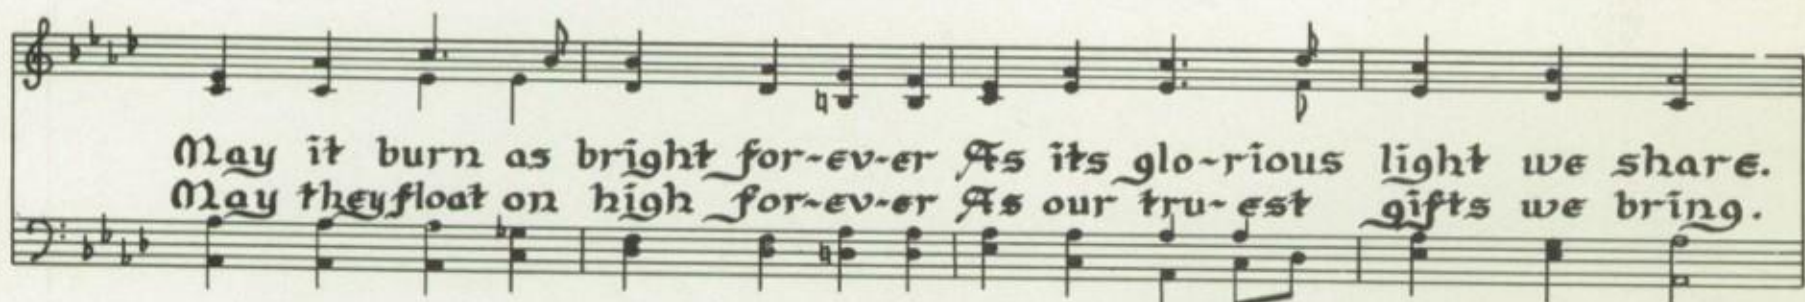

Senator Mike Mansfield

 You're the nuttiest girl
 I know! Keep it up. Carol! Good luck with Ronnie, too. Your fabulous personality will really keep our class swinging!
 God Bless

Acknowledgements

Only with the cooperation of everyone involved in any way with the publication of the yearbook, could it have been published. Therefore I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Russell, Mr. Crowell and the remainder of the administration and faculty of Sharon High, the custodians, Mr. Jack Merle of Rembrandt Studio, Mr. Houck the business manager, the school photographers, and Jim Lynch for the use of his ring, for their consideration and cooperation which was greatly appreciated.

I further extend my sincerest thanks to the staff members and editors and last, but surely not least to Mr. Blair Hood for the many long and frustrating hours they all have spent in the preparation of this book. Without the help of these and many others the 1964 MIRROR could never have been.
